I have just acquired a Peavey Stereo Chorus 400 from GC for less than $200. I remember playing one of these in my local music store back in 1990. I sat and played it for 4 hours. Being in college and paying my own way, there was no way I could afford that amp. Through the years, I still remembered it being a huge-sounding amp with great chorus.

2 user reviews on Peavey Stereo Chorus 212. I got this amp used for $300 as an upgrade from a small practice amp. I had a choice between this and a Fender Princeton Chorus. I picked this amp over the Fender Chorus because it has a much better bottom end. The dual 12 drivers handel extremely dropped tunings quite well.
