Watching Madden and his colleagues trying to convince a Scotland Yard skeptic is part of the intrigue of River of Darkness. Watching Madden rise from his own dark state is part of the intrigue, too. The reader not only gets inside the head of the murderer, but gets inside Madden's head as well.

River of Darkness ~ by Rennie Airth | | Great pick for 2020

Both John Madden and the killer, Amos Pike, have come through the war alive but not unscathed. This is not a spoiler as Mr Airth gives us glimpses of his thought processes and actions from early on in the novel. On the whole I enjoyed River Of Darkness which has an interesting premise, a good plot and likeable characters.
